Registration Form for my Poster Presentation

I herewith confirm my participation at IRES 2022, 20-22 September 2022.

Authorization for Publication

I want to submit a full paper in addition to my poster (not mandatory) and want it to be considered for publication with the open access publisher Atlantis Press (Publication in December 2022). Each submission will also be considered for publication in the Journal of Energy Storage. This process runs in parallel and the respective authors are addressed separately after the reviewing process.

By sending in this confirmation form, the presenter confirms her/his participation in the 16th International Renewable Energy Storage Conference (IRES 2022), 20-22 September 2022. Upon receiving the confirmation form, an invoice for the conference fee will be sent to the confirmed presenter. The conference fee for presenters (poster or parallel session) includes the access to all conference sessions. The conference materials during the three conference days, the network events as well as a ticket to the exhibition area of the Messe Düsseldorf are included. Cancellations of registrations are only accepted in written form. EUROSOLAR will charge a handling fee amounting to 30% of the conference fee when cancelling until four weeks before the conference. Until one week before the conference, a handling fee of 50% will be charged. No-shows or registrants, who cancel a week prior to or on the day of the conference will not receive a refund of their participation fee. A substitute for the presentation will be accepted without additional costs. The organizers of the conferences reserve the right to change the program should circumstances require.
